

Batteries at Home

Handling, Storage, and Disposal

- Keep new and used batteries separate.
- Store batteries in their original packaging until needed.
- Store batteries at room temperature or below.
- Don't store batteries near metal objects.
- Prevent children and pets from ingesting small batteries.
- To avoid leaks, dispose of batteries before their expiration date.
- Participate in local battery recycling programs.

