Energy Isolation

Verify isolation before work begins, and use specified life-protecting equipment

Fatality Prevention Behaviors

You must:
- Isolate any source of energy from release
- Conduct testing to verify that energy is not present by testing

If you are the supervisor or person in charge of the work, you must:
- Ensure that personnel are trained and competent