

Near Hit

The one that almost happened

How to react in the event of a 'near hit'

- Acknowledge the near hit and how the situation could have ended much worse.
- Alert fellow workers of the near hit, so that everyone can be aware to prevent incidents.
- Talk to your supervisor about what can be done to inform and solve the cause of the near hit, so that the workplace can be safer.
- Understand that reporting a near hit will not get you in trouble.
